The four artists—Kristin Kelly Javier, Peilin Kuo, Jamie Kay MacKenzie and Catrin Perih—share studios in Hastings-on-Hudson.

This shared space at 385 Warburton Avenue with its stunning views of the Hudson River has fostered a deep connection among them, both personally and creatively. Their collective focus on the theme of memory is central to their work, exploring how both collective and individual memories shape and inspire their art.

The group exhibition, Come Closer, vividly demonstrates how memory serves as a wellspring of inspiration and a guiding force in their creative processes.
